... with the new high-speed Kodak "SS" Film Cameras that used to be tucked away for the night are now taking pictures . . . mapshots . . . indoors! A new world of picture opportunities has opened up. You snap the evening parties . . . the children at bedrame . . . the fireside scenes.

Use a camera with an f.6.3 (or faster) lens, loaded with Kodak Super Sensitive Panchromatic Film. This high-speed (extra sensitive) "SS" Film does the trick-it's three times as fast as ordinary film under arrificial light.

For light, use two or three Mazda Photoflood bulbs. They cost 25é each - last for many pictures. Hold the camera in your hands as you would outdoors, set for 1 25 second, lens at f.6.3 opening. Click the shutter. You've made a snapshot. Indoors. At night, For indoor pictures at night with slower lens cameras (includ-
